Poverty is not an accident.
Like slavery and apartheid,
it is man-made and can be removed by the actions of human beings.

- Nelson Mandela

As long as poverty, injustice and gross inequality persist in our world,
none of us can truly rest.

Global Initiative

Ending Child Abuse.

Creating remarkable children!

Safe | Secure | Successful

A global initiative dedicated to bringing the vision of ending child abuse and creating remarkable children into a living reality.

Child abuse is the single most significant cause of everything wrong on this planet. Conversely, creating remarkable children who can reach their full potential is the single most effective way to create a world of peace and prosperity for everyone on this planet.

By ending all forms of child abuse; by nurturing and nourishing the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual wellbeing of all our children in every country around the world we can transform our planet.

Creating remarkable children from day one is by far the most powerful, effective way of creating a world of peace and prosperity for everyone on this planet.

Every child has the right to have this fundamental lifestyle: a life that is Safe; a life that is Secure and a life that is totally Successful.

By Safe means totally free from any form of violence, and any preventable or unnecessary physical, emotional and mental pain and/or harm.

By Secure means the appropriate supply of high-quality nutrition, accommodation, protection, care and love.

By Successful means the provision of an environment and atmosphere that stimulates, encourages and supports the realisation of their full physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual potential.

Global Charter for World Peace

Human Beings | Parents | Mothers | Fathers
Education | Community | Government | Business

The highest role of human beings: To live a safe, secure and successful life (as outlined in the 'Soft Diamond Light global initiative'), and to reach their full creative potential as a spiritual being in a physical body by living in balance with nature. To be great, while making others greater with uninterrupted selfless service. To care for the environment and support all life, especially children, in reaching their full potential: intellectually, emotionally and physically.

The highest role of parents: To create a safe family environment for love and happiness to come into its highest and fullest expression. To give children the best conditions for conception, gestation and birth. To provide a safe, nurturing and supportive atmosphere for their children, which allows them to discover and fulfil their highest role as a human being.

The highest role of mothers: To create the best possible conditions and atmosphere for giving birth to children, on an intellectual, emotional and physical level, prior, during and after the moment of conception. To then provide them with a caring, nurturing, nourishing and supportive environment for discovering the full potential of their spiritual nature through their individual personality.

The highest role for fathers: To be actively involved in supporting the highest role for mothers, and to do everything possible and necessary to honour, respect, support, encourage and inspire children to fulfil their highest purpose and potential as a human being.

Global Charter for World Peace

Human Beings | Parents | Mothers | Fathers
Education | Community | Government | Business

The highest purpose of education: To support the highest role of human beings and facilitate the discovery, understanding and unfolding of our innate latent powers as spiritual beings, and how these powers can best serve the highest good of the community. To teach practical life skills for living that are in harmony with the environment, with others and within ourselves, in accordance with the ongoing discovery of the natural laws of the universe.

The highest purpose for the community: To provide all the services, resources and practical requirements necessary to support the highest roles of human beings and particularly parents, and to fulfil the highest purpose of education.

The highest function of government: To support the highest roles of the community and education throughout the world.

The highest function of business: To support the highest function of government on a global scale for the highest good of all life. (There may come a time in the twenty-first century when the distinction between business and government will no longer be needed.)

“When the highest roles of business and government will merge. Peace and prosperity for all people on this planet will become the primary function of a new planetary, governing body. This will be achieved by an equitable distribution of all the planet’s resources. This new planetary governing body will be created when the highest roles of human beings, parents, mothers and fathers are attained in sufficient numbers on our planet. We will then see the vision of the Soft Diamond Light global initiative come into reality.”
